

Members of the New York City Fire Department

Graduates of the New York City Fire Department Academy may be exempt from the College's general education requirements provided that they transfer with 28 credits in liberal arts courses from an accredited post secondary institution.

1. You will be awarded 10 credits for basic training at the New York City Fire Academy.
2. You may receive additional credits for courses taken beyond basic training.
3. The maximum number of external credits that you can receive is 30.
4. For more information, please contact the Admissions Office.