

Members of the New York City Police Department

- 1. Graduates of the New York City Police Academy may be exempt from the College's general education requirements provided that they transfer with 28 credits in liberal arts courses from an accredited post secondary institution.
- 2. You will be awarded the following credits for training:
 - 30 credits awarded for training completed January 1974 – January 1985
 - 25 credits awarded for training completed January 1985 – January 1987
 - 28 credits awarded for training completed January 1987 – present
- 3. You may receive additional credits for supplementary police training.
- 4. The maximum number of external credits that you can receive is 30.
- 5. For more information, please contact the Admissions Office.