

The New York Association of Black Psychologists Presents:

“Utilizing Our Strengths”

A Two Day Community Forum
Professional Development and Student Circle Regional Conference

Date: April 9 & 10, 2010

Location: John Jay College of Criminal Justice
445 West 59th Street (between 9th & 10th Ave.)
Cafeteria

Time: April 9th: 5pm – 9pm
Registration will begin at 5pm, Catered Reception will follow

April 10th: 8am – 6pm
Registration and Breakfast will begin from 8am to 9:20am

Day 1: Emergency Preparedness and Crisis Response
Including an Expert Panel and Workshops

Workshops include...

- ❖ Psychological First Aid
- ❖ Emergency Preparedness
- ❖ Spirituality
- ❖ Cultural Arts
- ❖ Youth Empowerment

Day 2: Preparing Students for Graduate Study and Related Fields
Including Workshops by Professional Psychologists & Student
Poster Presentations

Please RSVP at: umirsvp@jjay.cuny.edu by April 1st

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact UMI at:
umi@jjay.cuny.edu

The Association of
BLACK PSYCHOLOGISTS

NEW YORK CHAPTER

Sponsored by: Urban Male Initiative, Counseling Department, SEEK Department of John Jay College of Criminal Justice, New York Association of Black Psychologists and the National ABPsi Student Circle. All programs of the Urban Male Initiative are open to all academically eligible students, faculty and staff without regard to race, gender, national region or other characteristics.