

JOHN JAY COLLEGE
THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

In the News

January 1 – 31, 2010

John Jay College faculty, staff, students and alumni were featured, quoted, cited and/or mentioned in 190 articles that appeared in national and major city print media outlets, online news services and blogs.

Please note this is only a sampling of print/online coverage. It is based on news clippings obtained through Cision Media Service, Lexis/Nexis, and Google that primarily search top media markets. Since we do not subscribe to a media monitoring service for television/radio coverage, those mentions are based solely on internal records.

Further note, blogs are now included in this report since many have become recognized media sources and an important part of viral marketing.

January 1, 2010

- The Morning Call, Allentown, PA, quoted Professor Jon Shane about a national trend in decreased homicide rates.
- Discover Magazine featured Professor Lawrence Kobilinsky in an article entitled Fake DNA Fools Crime Lab.
- Black Enterprise Magazine wrote an article about John Jay College of Criminal Justice student Jason Gray and his plans to start his own business after working in law enforcement.
- Professor Robert McCrie was quoted in an article on the importance of having a consistent policy on shoplifting posted on stores.org.
- Professor David Shapiro was quoted in the Toronto Star, Toronto, Ontario, CN; Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Pittsburgh, PA; and the St. Paul Pioneer Press, St. Paul, MN about the various strategies used by investigators when an extortion case involves celebrities.

January 2, 2010

- A short profile of student John Jay College of Criminal Justice, Jason Gray, was posted on the website naylandhouse.com.
- The blog workfromhomejob.hotblog.pl announced that John Jay College of Criminal Justice student Kristi Greenberg was one of ten graduate students chosen for the 2010 New York State Assembly Graduate Scholars Program.

January 3, 2010

- Alumna Shelley Renee Bonin, who received a master's degree in Forensic Psychology in 2007 from John Jay College of Criminal Justice, is marrying Donald Gordon Edgerton, Jr., according to the website thetowntalk.com, which covers central Louisiana.
- Professor Ric Curtis was quoted in Newsday about the reasons for increased heroin usage among white Long-Islander teenagers.
- The Dallas Morning News, Dallas, TX quoted Professor David Shapiro about the number of extortion cases involving celebrities last year.

January 4, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice's men's basketball team lost to Averett University by a score of 76-57, according to godanriver.com.
- The blog site adoraburl.typepad.com mentioned in a posting on psychologist and author Katherine Ramsland that she is a graduate of John Jay College of Criminal Justice's master's program in forensic psychology.
- John Jay College of Criminal Justice alumna Tatyana Ananyeva of Estonia was the subject of a New York Times profile on the number of NYPD officers who come from other countries.
- The CUNY Newswire reporting on the CUNY Justice Academy mentioned that a student from Bronx Community College will be guaranteed a transfer to John Jay College of Criminal Justice after completing a 60-credit associate's degree and passing the CUNY Proficiency Exam.

- The website reform-network.net opened for discussion on its message board the limitations of the studies done by John Jay College of Criminal Justice researchers on the sexual abuse of children by members of the Catholic clergy.
- The Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, CA quoted Professor David Shapiro in an article about the number of extortion cases involving celebrities last year.

January 5, 2010

- Distinguished Professor Todd Clear is leaving John Jay College of Criminal Justice to become dean of the School of Criminal Justice at Rutgers-Newark according to a Rutgers News Release.
- A posting on the blog ignatiusgroup.blogspot.com discussed the strengths and weaknesses of the study into the causes and contexts of the Catholic Church's sexual abuse scandal prepared by John Jay College of Criminal Justice researchers.
- The website broadwayworld.com listed performances scheduled for Spring 2010 season of Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- On reform-network.net, bloggers mentioned the John Jay College of Criminal Justice study on sexual abuse by Catholic clergy in a blog that focused on the lack of accountability inherent in top-down hierarchical institutions.
- The website nj.com quoted Professor Jon Shane in an article about whether politics was at the root of a discrepancy in the number of deaths considered murders by the Newark Police Department and by the Essex County Prosecutor's Office.
- John Jay College of Criminal Justice was mentioned as one of the recipients of the 2009 Department of Education Emergency Management for Higher Education grant in a prnewswire.com press release.
- Professor Andrew Karmen was mentioned by the Wall Street Journal as one of a number of social scientists who posited that crime was the result of economic and social inequality.
- Professor Robert McCrie was quoted by the Record, West Paterson, NJ, in an article about a surprising decline in the number of break-ins in Bergen County over the holidays.

January 6, 2010

- The website athletics.baruch.cuny.edu mentioned an upcoming women's basketball game at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The website nydailynews.com mentioned John Jay College of Criminal Justice as the site of a press conference held by New York Sen. Kristin Gillibrand.
- Professor Maki Haberfeld was quoted in an article posted by onenewsnow.com, poten.com and the Associated Press about the difficulty in establishing patterns of radicalization among would-be terrorists.
- The Star-Ledger, Newark, NJ, quoted Professor Jon Shane in an article about whether politics was at the root of a discrepancy in the number of deaths considered murders by the Newark Police Department and by the Essex County Prosecutor's Office.
- The schedule for the spring 2010 season at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice was listed on the website broadwayworld.com.

- Two staged readings of the musical Wanda's World will be performed at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, according to playbill.com and broadwayworld.com.
- Professor Eugene O'Donnell's op-ed on the type of help mentally ill ex-convicts need was published by the New York Daily News.
- The blog New York Social Diary reported that Chopin's 200th Birthday Marathon would be presented during the Spring 2010 season at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

January 7, 2010

- Professor Adina Schwartz was asked to testify about the reports and accuracy of ballistics evidence in a case involving the fatal shooting of a Boston police officer, according to reverejournal.com.
- The blog National News on cleveland.com quoted Professor Maki Haberfeld in an article about the difficulty in determining a pattern of radicalization among would-be terrorists.
- Professor Jon Shane was quoted by the Detroit News, Detroit, MI in an article about a drop of 20 percent in the number of homicides committed in that city in the last six months of 2009, as compared to the same period in 2008.
- Professor Andrew Karmen's op-ed on how poverty remains the root cause of crime appeared in USA Today.
- The website of the Fayette Daily News, Fayetteville, GA, published a column that mentioned Professor Andrew Karmen as among those social scientists who believe that crime is caused by the inequality of economic opportunity.
- Professor Maki Haberfeld was quoted on the blog thrashhard.blogspot.com about President Obama's response to terrorism following the Dec. 25, 2009 incident aboard an airplane.
- Professor Maki Haberfeld was quoted by the Arizona Daily Star, Tucson, AZ, in an article about a Duke University and University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, study that found most American Muslims who planned violent terrorist attacks since 2001 were young, male U.S. citizens who became radical as part of a group.
- Professor David Kennedy was quoted by reuters.com, ca.news.yahoo.com, news.yahoo.com and the news outlet Public International in an article about why the United States is experiencing a plunge in crime in the midst of a prolonged recession.

January 8, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice's women's basketball team lost to that of Baruch College, according to the website athletics.baruch.cuny.edu.
- Research by Professor Joshua Freilich has revealed a history of fatal attacks against law enforcement officers perpetrated by individuals who adhere to a far-right wing philosophy, according to crooksandliars.com.
- President Jeremy Travis is mentioned by the futuristspeaker.com blogsite about the success the city of Longmont, CO, has had with a restorative justice program

- The website karmeyhesed.org posted a column from the Fayette Daily News, Fayetteville, GA, that mentioned Professor Andrew Karmen, as among those social scientists who believe that crime is a response to unequal economic opportunity.
- The website fadenyc.com listed three series of art and music performances being held at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The website nj.com reported that the College of Saint Elizabeth's women's tennis team beat that of John Jay College of Criminal Justice at the North Eastern Athletic Conference.
- The website broadwayworld.com announced that the play Wanda's World would be holding casting auditions at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The blog scena.org listed the Spring 2010 events that will be held at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The website athletics.baruch.cuny.edu reported that Baruch's men's basketball team defeated that of John Jay College of Criminal Justice by a score of 72-64.
- Professor Maki Haberfeld was quoted in the Globe and Mail, Ontario, Canada, in a column about the President Obama's handling of the war on terror.
- Professor David Kennedy was quoted by the Daily Challenge, Brooklyn, NY, in an article about the decline in U.S. crime despite a prolonged recession.
- John Jay College of Criminal Justice was noted in an article posted by the Media Awareness Project, mapinc.org, as the site of a conference last May on the possibility of opening a legal safe-injection facility in New York City for addicts.
- Findings from the interim report on the causes and contexts for the sexual abuse of children by members of the Catholic clergy prepared by researchers at John Jay College of Criminal Justice were noted in an article by catholicnewsagency.com.

January 9, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice alumnus Kevin James, known as "Young Voice," performed Soca music at the Trinidad and Tobago's Carnival 2010, according to the website tropicalfete.com.
- The blog Political Vindication mentioned Professor Andrew Karmen in an article about the discrepancy between those who believe poverty is the root of crime, and those who refute that view by pointing to a recent plunge in crime despite a prolonged recession.
- Professor Robert J. Castelli was mentioned in a Newsday article that gave potential homebuyers tips on how to find information on crime, weather and other aspects of life in whatever locality they are considering.

January 10, 2010

- The Times-Tribune, Scranton, PA, and positiveleo.wordpress.com quoted Professor Dennis Kenney in an article about how successful the city's police department has been in subduing offenders by just the threat of using a Taser gun.
- Professor Andrew Karmen was mentioned in an article posted on scottystarnesblog.wordpress.com as one of a number of social scientists who posited that crime was the result of economic inequality.

- The blog kixandthecity.com reported that under a project sponsored by LeBron James and Nike, John Jay College of Criminal Justice's gym would be open for a few hours for local, high school-aged basketball players.
- Professor David Shapiro blogged about fraud and propaganda on his site dshapiro32.blogspot.com.
- The New York Daily News featured John Jay College of Criminal Justice basketball player, 32-year-old Eddie Sanford.
- Professor Peter Moskos' blog Cop in the Hood discussed the phenomenon of those who come to John Jay College of Criminal Justice because of television programs such as CSI.
- The New York Times, the blog Think Outside the Cage and the Media Awareness Project, mapinc.org, mentioned Distinguished Professor Todd Clear and Professor David Kennedy in an article about a program in Hawaii whereby parolees are given immediate sentences when they violate the rules of their release.
- The blog WagerWeb Entertainment mentioned in its obituary of Dr. Herbert Spiegel, a psychiatrist who popularized therapeutic hypnosis, that he had once held an academic appointment at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The website newyork.going.com announced a performance of the play Zombie at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The website facebook.com posted a number of John Jay College of Criminal Justice events being held by the Pre Law Institute.
- The website mapinco.org mentioned that John Jay College of Criminal Justice was the site of a conference in May exploring the possibility of legal safe-injection facilities in New York City for drug addicts.

January 11, 2010

- Professor Joseph Pollini was quoted by the capegazette.com in the case against a Delaware pediatrician accused of molesting dozens of patients.
- The Pre Law Institute at John Jay College of Criminal Justice announced on facebook.com its deadline of Feb. 15, 2010 for students of modest means from NYU and Harvard to participate in a five-week program.
- Two staged readings of the musical Wanda's World will be performed at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, according to broadwayworld.com and the blog mediafetcher.com.

January 12, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice's report on the causes and contexts of the sexual abuse of children by members of the Catholic clergy was mentioned by the blog whispersintheloggia.blogspot.com.

January 13, 2010

- The Macon Daily, Macon, GA, quoted Professor David Kennedy on how the era of Prohibition was one of unprecedented crime and violence as well as prosperity, while during the Great Depression, the nation's level of criminal activity declined.

- The CUNY Justice Academy and John Jay College of Criminal Justice were the subjects of a report by the CUNY Newswire.
- The website yorkathletics.com reported that York College's women's swim team lost its match against that of John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- Gotham Gazette published a three-part series on the connections between the criminal justice and the child welfare system in New York City as part of a project supported by a fellowship from the Center on Media, Crime and Justice at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The Post-Standard, Syracuse, NY, mentioned in an article about a ticket quota proposed by the Chief of the Auburn Police Department to raise money for the city that two professors from John Jay College of Criminal Justice said that the scheme raised ethical questions.

January 14, 2010

- The New York Daily News wrote an article about John Jay College of Criminal Justice's Eddie Sanford, who will be ineligible to play on the men's basketball team after Jan. 15, 2010.
- Baruch College's women's swim team defeated that of John Jay College of Criminal Justice, according to a posting on athletics.baruch.cuny.edu.
- Professor Robert Castelli has been selected as the Republican candidate for New York's 89th Assembly District's special election, according to lohud.com.
- Professor Jon Shane was quoted in an Austin American-Statesman, Austin, TX article about allowing officers suspended without pay for disciplinary infractions to use vacation or compensatory time instead.
- The Boston Globe, Boston, MA and the websites piotrkowianin.info and realdealfinance.com mentioned in an article about the Celtics' win over the Nets that the Celtics worked out at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice's gym.
- The Belleville New-Democrat, Belleville, IL, which covers southeastern Illinois and St. Louis, received John Jay College of Criminal Justice's 2010 Excellence in Criminal Justice Reporting Award for its story on the treatment of prisoners at the Tamms supermax prison.
- Professor Louis B. Schlesinger was quoted in an article posted on the capegazette.com about a Delaware pediatrician who has been accused of molesting more than 100 children.
- The blog thinkingaboutcrime.wordpress.com mentioned that the blogger would be beginning work at John Jay College of Criminal Justice as a research assistant to a forensic psychologist who is writing a book about criminal rehabilitation.

January 15, 2010

- Professor Robert Castelli has been selected as the Republican candidate for New York's 89th Assembly District's special election, according to polhud.lohudblogs.com, the news website FeedBurner, and the blog Politics on the Hudson.
- The website broadwayworld.com mentioned Holly Hill, a Professor Emerita of Speech and Theatre at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, in an article about an anthology of Middle Eastern-American drama.

- Research by Professor Joshua Freilich has revealed a history of fatal attacks against law enforcement officers perpetrated by individuals who adhere to a far-right wing philosophy, according to crooksandliars.com.
- The website criminaljusticecollege.net mentioned the John Jay College of Criminal Justice Community Policing Leadership Institute.

January 16, 2010

- Professor David Kennedy was quoted by the Commercial Appeal, Memphis, TN, in an article about how difficult it is to tell which crime strategy is working when crime is falling all over the country.
- The blog kixandthecity.com reported that under a project sponsored by LeBron James and Nike, John Jay College of Criminal Justice's gym would be open for a few hours so that high school-aged basketball players could come and play.
- The blog Legal Informatics announced the publication of the book Police-Induced Confessions: Risk Factors and Recommendations by Distinguished Professor Saul M. Kassin.
- The website pressrelated.com announced that Siegel+Gale chairman and CEO Alan Siegel is joining the John Jay College Foundation Board.

January 17, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice was mentioned by the Enterprise News, Brockton, MA, as the site of a morning shoot around by the Boston Celtics on the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King.
- Professor Lawrence Kobilinsky was interviewed by TruTV on the case of Bobby Batiste who is accused of capital murder in Mississippi.
- The blog incoldblogger.blogspot.com mentioned in a review of the film The Lovely Bones that author and psychologist Katherine Ramsland is a graduate of John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The website seattlepi.com quoted Professor Lawrence Kobilinsky about the backlog in the testing of forensic evidence at the Washington state crime lab.
- The blog rexwordpuzzle.blogspot.com mentioned that blogger Rex Parker will be teaching a class on crossword puzzles at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- Professor James Lynch has been nominated by President Obama to lead the Justice Department Bureau of Justice Statistics, according to the website mainjustice.com.
- Professor Lawrence Kobilinsky was quoted by the website theolympian.com about the backlog of ballistics tests due to a dearth of trained firearms ballistics examiners.

January 18, 2010

- The website massmailinglist.com posted a query from someone who wanted to know how to get on John Jay College of Criminal Justice's mailing list for information about the College.
- The website heraldnet.com quoted Professor Lawrence Kobilinsky about the backlog in the testing of forensic evidence at the Washington state crime lab.

- Distinguished Professor Saul Kassin research was mentioned by medicalnewstoday.com in an announcement about a special edition of the journal of the British Psychological Society.
- The blog Virtual Office FAQ mentioned that cellist Clara Yang is on the faculty at the Mozart Academy of John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

January 19, 2010

- Professor David Shapiro was quoted by USA Today in an article about a 20 percent plunge in the number of bank robberies committed last year, despite the recession.
- Professor David Kennedy's Cease-Fire program was mentioned in an editorial in the Press-Telegram, Long Beach, CA.
- Professor Doug Salane was quoted by Newsday in an article about how to protect oneself from online scammers posing as the IRS in order to elicit personal information such as Social Security numbers and bank account numbers.
- The website thecrimereport.org posted an article about reporters from the News-Democrat, Belleville, IL, and the Austin Chronicle, Austin, TX winning John Jay College of Criminal Justice's 2010 Excellence in Criminal Justice Reporting.
- John Jay College of Criminal Justice was listed as the site for the 2010 Male Survivor Conference sponsored by The Awareness Center in March by the blog exposemolesters.blogspot.com.

January 20, 2010

- The website csidolphins.com reported that John Jay College of Criminal Justice's men's basketball team defeated John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- Professor Andrew Karmen was mentioned in an editorial by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, Little Rock, AR as one of the social scientists who found the root cause of crime to be the economic inequality.
- The website diariolibre.com mentioned President Jeremy Travis in an article about John Jay College of Criminal Justice's assistance in professionalizing the national police force of the Dominican Republic
- The website uniguru.com, a resource for Indian students who wish to study abroad, asked students to share their experiences attending John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The blog Legal Informatics announced the publication of The Effects of Rehabilitative Voir Dire on Juror Bias and Decision Making by Professors Caroline B. Crocker and Margaret Bull Kovera in the journal Law and Human Behavior.

January 21, 2010

- Joe Domanick, associate director of the Center on Media, Crime and Justice at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, was quoted by the reuters.com, ca.news.yahoo.com, the postchronicle.net, Public International and news.yahoo.com in an article about a new approach being taken by the country's drug czar in combating narcotics-fueled criminality.
- The blog rsteinhoffatty.typepad.com and the website stateline.org quoted President Jeremy Travis about the findings of the committee he chaired on the New York State juvenile justice system.

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice alumnus Michael P. Shannon, a Sgt. 1st Class serving in Afghanistan, suffered a fatal heart attack there at the age of 52, according to the Pocono Record, Stroudsburg, PA.
- President Jeremy Travis was quoted by the New York Times and on the website thecrimereport.org about the need to downsize New York State's system of juvenile prisons and develop community-based strategies.
- A column in the News Journal, Wilmington, DE, mentioned Professor Andrew Karmen in an article about how wrong he and many criminologists were when they posited that crime is a result of socioeconomic inequality.
- Professor Robert Castelli is the Republican candidate in the special election to replace former 89th District Assemblyman Adam Bradley, according to acorn-online.com.
- The website enjoymediation.com mentioned John Jay College of Criminal Justice as the site of monthly New York City-Dispute Resolution Roundtable Breakfast meetings.
- The Daily News, Woodland Hills, CA, mentioned Professor David Kennedy's Cease-Fire program's success in High Point, NC, in an article about approaches that could reduce the flow of California's inmates.
- The Austin Chronicle, Austin, TX mentioned John Jay College of Criminal Justice in a discussion board about how to find faculty housing in New York City.

January 22, 2010

- President Jeremy Travis was mentioned as the leader of a task force on New York's juvenile justice system in a San Francisco Examiner, San Francisco, CA article on the panel's findings.
- The website change.org's criminal justice blog reported on John Jay College of Criminal Justice's award for Excellence in Criminal Justice Reporting.
- The New York Daily News wrote an article about John Jay College of Criminal Justice student Crystal Ferguson, a winner of the White House Internship Program for spring 2010.
- The website topics.treehugger.com announced John Jay College of Criminal Justice's Gerald W. Lynch Theater's Spring 2010 season.
- The website upcoming.yahoo.com announced the Legacy of Shoah Concert and Film Festival at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- Austin Chronicle, Austin, TX reporter Jordan Smith has won her second John Jay College of Criminal Justice award for Excellence in Criminal Justice Reporting, according to an article in that newspaper.
- The website westchester.com included in its profile of Robert Castelli, Republican candidate for the 89th District in the New York State Assembly, that he is a professor at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The blogs South Willard and Expose Corrupt Courts reported on the verbal confrontation between former NYPD Detective Frank Serpico and former Police Commissioner Patrick V. Murphy at a lecture at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

January 23, 2010

- The blog psychology.diggyblog.com mentions in a posting about the field of forensic psychology that John Jay College of Criminal Justice is one of the few programs offering master's degrees in the subject.
- The website athletics.baruch.cuny.edu mentioned an upcoming men's basketball game between Brooklyn College and John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- Jesse Lemisch, Professor Emeritus of History, posted a blog on hnn.us about the role that the United States has played in the impoverishment of Haiti and how it has exacerbated the disaster wrought by the earthquake.

January 24, 2010

- One comment to the website myparentingquestions.com about the comedian Jim Breuer noted that his performance was filmed at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- Professor Eugene O'Donnell was quoted by the New York Post in an article about how the NYPD became a global police force with permanent posts in 11 international cities.
- The website indeed.com listed an open rank faculty opening at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- Alumnus Joseph Nieves mentioned in his blog, josephnieves.blogspot.com, that he was a student at John Jay College of Criminal Justice before becoming a pastor.
- John Jay College of Criminal Justice was mentioned in a New York Times article as the site for a verbal confrontation between former NYPD detective Frank Serpico and former Police Commissioner Patrick V. Murphy during a lecture.
- The Staten Island Advance featured John Jay College of Criminal Justice student Antwan G. in an article about his internship during high school at the Staten Island Children's Museum.

January 25, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice alumnus Michael P. Shannon, an Army Sgt. 1st Class, died in Afghanistan at the age of 52 from a heart attack, according to the blogs agangershome.blogspot.com.
- Professor Katie Gentile's article on the media's obsession with celebrities' post-pregnancy weight-loss was posted on thedailybeast.com.

January 26, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice alumnus Theodore Miraldi blogged on theodoremiraldi.blogspot.com about how glad he is that Sen. Edward Kennedy's seat went to a Republican.
- The blog Talk Vietnam quoted Joe Domanick, Associate Director of John Jay College of Criminal Justice's Center on Media, Crime and Justice, on why President Obama will not be pushing for the legalization of marijuana.
- The news site FeedBurner listed the opening at John Jay College of Criminal Justice's President's sixth-floor gallery of an exhibit of paintings by Charlotta Janssen.

- Noam Chomsky, E.L. Doctorow and Tony Kushner will be among those to speak at Justice and Injustice in the 1950s America: A Lecture Series, at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, according to the CUNY Newswire.
- President Jeremy Travis announced that the winners of John Jay College of Criminal Justice's Excellence in Criminal Justice Reporting Awards were George Pawlaczyk and Beth Hunsdorfer of the Belleville News-Democrat, Belleville, IL, and Jordan Smith of the Austin Chronicle, Austin, TX according to the CUNY Newswire.

January 27, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice student Terri Watson was interviewed about her harassment by a debt-collection agency in a lohud.com article about how aggressive some of these agencies can be.
- John Jay College of Criminal Justice was mentioned by as one of the recipients of the 2009 Department of Education Emergency Management for Higher Education grant in a tickertechnologies.com press release.
- Professor Robert Castelli has not yet announced endorsements for his candidacy as the Republican candidate for the 89th New York State Assembly seat, according to lohud.com and news outlet FeedBurner.
- Blogger Sabrina Eury mentioned on her site, sabrinatheury.blogspot.com, that she is a John Jay College of Criminal Justice student majoring in Deviant Behavior and Social Control.
- The website wbur.org mentioned the study done by John Jay College of Criminal Justice on sexual abuse by members of the Catholic clergy in a posting that called all such priests homosexual and called for an end to pedophilia, along with abortion, euthanasia and embryonic stem-cell research.
- The website athletics.baruch.cuny.edu reported that Baruch's men's basketball team beat John Jay College of Criminal Justice by a score of 83-63.
- The building expansion at John Jay College of Criminal Justice was one of the projects that CUNY Chancellor Matthew Goldstein included in his testimony before New York State Senate Committees, according to the blog zikkir.com and the CUNY Newswire.

January 28, 2010

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice student Blake Thompson was quoted in a NY1 story about the high cost of textbooks and a program through Barnes & Noble College Booksellers whereby students can rent books for less than half their purchase price.
- Professor Eugene O'Donnell was quoted in an article in AM New York Mayor Michael Bloomberg's about-face on the issue.
- The website ascribe.org announced that the Fifth Annual Harry Frank Guggenheim Symposium on Crime in America at John Jay College of Criminal Justice sponsored by the College's Center on Media, Crime and Justice would focus on criminal justice reform and strategies that seem to be working.
- Scientific American wrote an article about Distinguished Professor Gerald Markowitz's expert testimony in a case charging the makers of lead-based paint with selling the product while aware that the lead was dangerous to children.

- John Jay College of Criminal Justice alumnus Glenn Hansen, CEO and president of the global auditing firm BPA Worldwide, celebrated his 30th anniversary with the company, according to marketwired.com, ca.news.yahoo.com, finance.yahoo.com and newsblaze.com.
- The website scientificnote.com included a paragraph about the Scientific American article featuring Distinguished Professor Gerald Markowitz and the civil trial he was involved in as an expert witness on public health.
- The Chronicle Herald, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada and the news outlet FeedBurner quoted John Jay College of Criminal Justice doctoral candidate Albert Gamarra on the potential for terrorism at the Olympics.

January 29, 2010

- Stamford, CT's, new police chief is John Jay College of Criminal Justice alumnus Robert Nivakoff, according to an article in the Hour, Norwalk, CT.
- The website bardcep.wordpress.com included Professor Peter Romaniuk in its list of speakers for the Ralph Bunche Forum – Spring 2010.
- The news site hoy.com.do reported on President Jeremy Travis's visit to a women's rehabilitation and correctional facility in the Dominican Republic.
- In its obituary of Reginald A. Walker, a retired NYPD Transit Officer, the website legacy.com mentioned that he had obtained a bachelor's degree from John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
- The website broadwayworld.com announced that Professor Kwando Kinshasa will be on a panel discussing a performance of The Scottsboro Boys: A Conversation About the Case and its Legacy.
- Research by Professor Joshua Freilich has revealed a history of fatal attacks against law enforcement officers perpetrated by individuals who adhere to a far-right wing philosophy, according to crooksandliars.com.
- The Pittsburgh Comet, Pittsburgh, PA reported that Professor David Kennedy had returned to the city last October to check on the progress of the Pittsburgh Initiative to Reduce Crime, scheduled to roll out during the first half of this year.

January 30, 2010

- Research by Professor Joshua Freilich has revealed a history of fatal attacks against law enforcement officers perpetrated by individuals who adhere to a far-right wing philosophy, according to crooksandliars.com.
- The website easychickenhouse-plans.com interviewed John Jay College of Criminal Justice's director of community outreach, Declan Walsh, about his six years raising chickens in Brooklyn.

January 31, 2010

- The New York Daily News reported that John Jay College of Criminal Justice honored Chicago Cubs-New York area scout Billy Blitzer with its lifetime achievement award.
- Professor Gloria Browne-Marshall was profiled by the blog blackfemaleauthors.blogspot.com as a playwright and author, as well as member of the John Jay College of Criminal Justice faculty.

- The website ascribe.com announced that John Jay College of Criminal Justice Center on Media, Crime and Justice would be hosting the Fifth Annual Harry Frank Guggenheim Symposium on criminal justice reforms.
- John Jay College of Criminal Justice was ranked by U.S. News & World Report in 2009 as one of the top 15 criminology programs in the country.